in excess of the fixed allowance of Rs 427-10-2. The Amildar reports that the Excess Expenditure was due to the rise of prices for food grains and to the increase of pilgrims. He has however been strictly warned to confine the Expenditure within the Sanctioned Scale for the future.

He solicited that sanction may be obtained to the Enclosed bill as a special case, the charge being made debitable to the Savings effected during the last year under other items of receipts of the same temple.
